GARCIA IS NOT DEAD.

The Noted Cuban Rebel Is Still Among the Living.

HIS REPORTED DEATH UNTRUE.

Another Man's Dead Body Taken For Garcia's in Order to Claim the Big Reward That Had Been Placed on His Head. Garcia's Wife Apparently in the Scheme Which Deceived the Soldiers.

TAMPA, Fla., March 8.—The killing of Manuel Garcia is denied. Garcia's band on the day that he was reported killed, raided a store at Seba Mocha. After obtaining what they desired and was about to mount their horses a volunteer, who was an acolyte in the church, and a regular soldier, both in civilian's dress, came upon the party. In the encounter one was killed by the acolyte, who, in turn was killed, being cut literally to pieces.

This occurred on Feb. 24, in the evening. As there was a price on Garcia's head of $10,000 from the government and about $25,000 from the sugar planters in the vicinity, there was quite an incentive in claiming that the dead bandit was Garcia. Parties who have seen the pictures of the dead bandit, taken and published after his death, assert that it is not the likeness of Garcia.

When Garcia's wife was asked by the soldiers to go and identify the body, she attired herself in black and went with them. When the party alighted at the station, she put her handkerchief to her face and pretended to be sobbing. She then told them that she knew the body was that of her husband and there was no use to go to look at it. She did this to deceive the soldiers.

It is stated that Garcia still lives in the vicinity of the place where he was reported to have been killed. This report comes direct from Seba Mocha by a gentleman who was there on last Thursday. Garcia is a much smaller man than Peppe Islono, the man killed. The Cuban papers represent the deceased man as being large and broad-shouldered.

HONORING THE DEAD.

The Czar's Second Cousin's Remains Are Shipped to St. Petersburg.

SAN REMO, Italy, March 8.—There was an imposing ceremony here yesterday afternoon, upon the occasion of the departure of the remains of the late Grand Duke Alexis Michelovitch, second cousin of the czar, who died on Saturday, last, for St. Petersburg. Several Italian ironclads, which were in the harbor, flew the Russian and Italian flags and fired quarter minute guns as the funeral cortege proceeded to the station.

The church bells were tolled, the shops were closed and the street lamps were draped with crape. The hearse was escorted by a detachment of Italian soldiers and sailors, and was followed by several members of the Russian imperial family, the foreign consuls, all the municipal officers and the state officials of the neighborhood. King Humbert was represented by the Marquis of Fores and Admiral Argerio. Dense crowds of people lined the streets.

Took More Than Supposed.

MUNCIE, Ind., March 8.—It has developed that C. F. Sheldon, the absconding manager of the Chicago Stock Exchange or "bucket shop," took about $2,000 of Muncie people's money with him instead of $200, as first reported. About 20 citizens, who patronized the office are the losers, amounts ranging as high as $900, while the general manager at Indianapolis claims to be a big loser also by Sheldon's sudden departure.

New Minister of War for Japan.

YOKOHAMA, March 8.—Field Marshal Count Yamagata, who was commander of the First Japanese army, but who was invalided home from Machura, has been appointed minister of war. The commander of the Second Japanese army, Field Marshal Count Oyama, held the war portfolio prior to his departure to the front, after which the affairs of the war ministry were directed by Count Saigo, minister of marine.

After Incendiaries.

ANDERSON, Ind., March 8.—A large number of angry farmers are in town, and have telegraphed for a pack of bloodhounds. Then a search will be made for the persons who last night robbed stores at Markleville, and burned much property southeast of the city. Isaac Allen's barn was first burned, and from that spot the bloodhounds will be started with a posse of officers from this city.

Fatally Burned.

WABASH, Ind., March 8.—Mrs. W. S. Charles of Mentone, daughter of Albert Tucker, one of the wealthiest farmers in northern Indiana, was fatally burned. She was rendering lard on a gasome stove, when the melting grecce ran over on the floor, blozed up and ignited her dress. She was horribly burned.

Charged with a Snatch.

FOSTORIA, O., March 8.—M. B. Waldo, one of the proprietors of the Earl House in this city, has been arrested on a warrant sworn out by North Baltimore, O., parties. Waldo, who was cashier of the People's bank up to the time of its failure, is alleged to be short $8,000 in his accounts.

Ate Poisoned Meat.

AKRON, O., March 8.—Mrs. Eliza Cowen, a widow, and three children living near this city, are lying at the point of death, poisoned by eating dried beef and gravy. The recovery of all four is extremely doubtful.

TRIPLE TRAGEDY.

Two Men Dead and Their Slayer Badly Wounded.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., March 8.—News has just reached here from Temecula Oak, Limestone county, of a triple tragedy which occurred here last evening. As the result James and Martin Lentz, brothers, are dead, and Luke Coleman is seriously wounded. All were prominent young men and the best of friends until a few days ago, when Coleman repeated a story which he claimed the Lentz boys had told him, which was defamatory to the character of several highly connected young ladies in that neighborhood.

When friends of the young ladies heard the story they began to trace it down. Coleman referring them to the Lentz boys, but the latter denied that they had told the story. This caused bad blood between the young men, and last evening when Coleman was returning home he was waylaid by the Lentz brothers. They sprang out as he passed, and one of them seized the horse's bridle, while the other struck him with a rock and shot him in the arm. Coleman quickly returned the fire, emptying his revolver. James Lentz was shot in the abdomen and Murt in the lungs. Coleman then rode hurriedly away, sending medical aid to the wounded men, but both have since died. Public sympathy seems to be with Coleman, who claims self-defense.

Girl Murderously Assailed.

CLEVELAND, March 8.—Miss Tillie Hangel lies in a dying condition in the house of Cadmus, on the Mayfield road in East Cleveland, a suburb, as the result of a murderous assault committed on her by a robber Wednesday. While Miss Hangel was alone in the house a man came to the door and demanded all the money she had. The girl declared there was nothing of value in the house. This seemed to anger the robber and he attacked Miss Hangel with a sandbag, fracturing her skull, after which he escaped. Physicians succeeded in restoring the girl to consciousness for a short time, when she related her story. She will probably die.

Four Men Injured.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., March 8.—Yesterday afternoon as a number of men were engaged in raising a 12-ton rock on the steamer traveler of Otto P. Kroeger, on South Flores street, the rails spread and the engine, men and all were hurled to the ground below, a distance of about 25 feet. Four men were injured. Sam Benson was bruised about the hips and back by being struck by a flying rail. William Schneider had his left leg seriously bruised. John Baylor and John Gates, both colored, were also seriously injured.

New-Chwang Battle Now Confirmed.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—A telegram from Tokio has been received by the Japanese minister confirming the report of the capture of New-Chwang by the First army, under General Nodzyn. The old town of New-Chwang was taken by assault after 13 hours' hard fighting, the Chinese offering a stubborn resistance. Within the town itself, 1,800 Chinese were killed, and about 500 surrendered. Large quantities of war material were captured, including 16 cannon. The Japanese lost 206 killed and wounded.

Smallpox in Chicago.

CHICAGO, March 8.—Smallpox has broken out in a colony of Teuvesee colored people who recently settled in West Lake street, and five cases have already been found by the authorities. There are also 100 men in the colony, and as all have been exposed, more cases of the disease are expected. Another case has been found in the poor house in Danning, and health officers fear another epidemic.

Boiler Explosion With Fatal Results.

AKRON, O., March 8.—A large boiler at the works of the B. F. Goodrich Rubber company blew up yesterday with fatal effects. John Vance, a machinist, was instantly killed. John Summerville was terribly scalded and otherwise seriously injured. Several other men received slight injuries. A number of surrounding buildings were more or less damaged by the explosion.

Hawk After a Child.

AKRON, O., March 8.—A large hawk descended on the 3-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gates, living near Harrisburg, this county. The hawk was evidently wild with hunger, for it attempted to carry the child off. Her screams called her father to the scene, and he drove the bird off. The child was terribly injured, however, about the head.

Burglars on a Handcar.

DEXTER CITY, O., March 8.—Wednesday night thieves stole a handcar at Caldwell, O., on the C. & M. railway and ran south, burglarizing the following places: Caldwell, Dudley, South Oliver, Dexter City, Elba and Whipple. Ticket offices and a saloon at Warner were robbed. They left the handcar at Caywood and took to the woods.

Negro Highwaymen.

AKRON, O., March 8.—Richard Vaughn was held up and robbed of several dollars and a watch while driving to his home, south of Carey. The work was done by two burly negroes, believed, from their descriptions, to be the same who robbed and fatally wounded a farmer near Canton Saturday night.

Bank Officials Indicted.

LEXINGTON, Va., March 8.—The grand jury found indictments against C. M. Figgat, late cashier of the Bank of Lexington, for embezzlement; against R. K. Goodwin, bookkeeper, for making false entries, and against C. W. Irving for receiving money, knowing his bank account to be overdrawn.

STEAMER GROUNDED.

No Lives Lost and the Vessel May Be Saved.

IT WAS ENTERING NEW YORK.

Some of the Passengers Removed and an Effort Made to Float the Vessel, but It Proved Futile — Over Four Hundred Passengers Were Aboard When the Accident Occurred.

NEW YORK, March 8.—The North German Lloyd steamship Havel, Captain Jungst, went ashore on the north side of Gedney's channel early yesterday morning while entering the harbor. Most of the passengers were asleep and no excitement prevailed.

At the time of the accident Pilot Conner was in charge. The engines were reversed when the buoy marking the entrance of the channel was observed almost alongside the vessel whose stern fell off to port, and before her headway could be stopped she ran aground on the north of the outer red buoy, which indicates the entrance to the channel. The ice in the harbor had again made necessary the electric lamps and the buoy, not being lighted, was not seen until too late to prevent the steamer grounding. The engines were at once reversed at full speed, but failed to move the vessel.

When the tide began to fall the Havel listed heavily to starboard. Eight tugs were soon alongside the steamer in readiness to assist in floating her at high water. There were 155 cabin and 21 steerage passengers on the Havel.

The steamboat George Starr and another side-wheel steamer took off some of the passengers during the afternoon. Among the cabin passengers was Rev. Edward G. Thurber, a relative of President Cleveland's private secretary, who was brought up to the city by the revenue cutter Hudson.

On the cutter's return to the city one of the officers said that the Havel lay in a bad position, heading north, northeast, with her bows toward Rockaway. At low water her bow below the water mark showed 10 feet of water, and her stern propeller was half out of the water.

At 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon, when it was high water, the tugs repeatedly pulled on the stranded steamer, but their united efforts, with the assistance of the steamer's engines, did not succeed in getting her off. Another effort will be made the next high tide. She can probably be saved, but may have to be lightened.

Among the saloon passengers on the Havel are 12 officers of the Japanese army, who have been ordered home for duty by their government. They have been studying the tactics of the German army in Germany for some time past. Their names, as appear on the passenger list, are: Hauptmann Hayashi, Kitagawa Hauptmann Sonnaka, T. O. Hara, K. Osa, Herr K. O. I. K. Sato, O. Mitake, T. Matsukawa, Hauptmann Teentyoshi and E. Yamaoto. They will start for Japau via San Francisco.

WHIPPED THE TEACHER

After the Teacher Had Blacked His Boy's Eyes.

CHICAGO, March 8.—Principal Samuel A. Harrison of the Burroughs school was arrested on a charge of assault and battery preferred by Albert Rolston, a constable. Before causing the arrest of Mr. Harrison, Constable Rolston had visited the principal in his school room, and in a brief but energetic interview had punched the principal's head blacked his eyes and demoralized him generally.

The trouble arose over a son of Rolston's, who was a pupil of Mr. Harrison. Some ink was spilled on the floor near the boy's desk and he was accused of putting it there. He denied it, but was kept after school and ordered to clean it up. The boy refused and claims the principal struck him several times in the face. The boy's face was badly marked and both of his eyes partly closed by the blows he says he received. The elder Rolston, after seeing his boy's face, started out to find the principal. When he did so the latter asked what he had come for. "For you," said Rolston, and the man of law and man of letters at once mixed matters. The fight lasted so long that a call was sent for the patrol wagons, but when it arrived Rolston was satisfied with his work and had gone to swear out a warrant for Mr. Harrison's arrest. The latter was badly used in the fight.

GIVEN THEIR PASSPORTS.

Venezuela Sends the French and Belgian Ministers Back Home.

NEW YORK, March 8.—A special dispatch from Caracas, Venezuela, says: President Crespo has given their passports to the ministers of France and Belgium to Venezuela.

This action is due, it is said, to statements published in the Italian green book, in which it appears that the French, Belgian, German and Spanish ministers here discredited the institutions of this republic.

They urged the powers to impose upon Venezuela a mixed foreign tribunal, to have jurisdiction in all questions in which Europeans are concerned.

TAX COLLECTOR SHORT.

WAY CROSS, Ga., March 8.—T. T. Whigman, tax collector of Ware county, attempted suicide with laudanum. He has been dealing extensively in croissants and a hasty investigation of his books show him to be short $1,500. He swallowed two bottles of laudanum and will die.

AN EXCITING VOYAGE.

Fire on Board a Ship Near Four Hundred Pounds of Powder.

BOSTON, March 8.—The United States transport Fern, commanded by Lieutenant Commander George A. Bicknell, which arrived here yesterday afternoon from Newport, whence she had arrived from Philadelphia, went through the most thrilling experience before reaching port. After sailing from Philadelphia about one week ago she encountered large fields of ice and heavy seas which disabled her so that she barely escaped foundering and was considerably delayed in making repairs.

She made a brief stay at the torpedo station at Newport, leaving that port for Boston Tuesday night. When off Cape Cod, fire broke out in the cabin and in a few minutes the captain's quarters were all in flames. Just beneath the cabin, within a few feet of the fire, were stored 400 pounds of smokeless powder. The ship seemed doomed, but after hours of hard fighting the seamen suppressed the flames, and the damage, which will probably exceed $2,000, was confined in the cabin.

Several of the crew were more or less burned, but none suffered serious injury. A heavy sea was rolling and high winds blowing, which made the work doubly hard, and the officers claim that but for the heroism of the crew, the ship would doubtless have been blown up with all on board.

NICARAGUAN CANAL WANTED.

OHIO, West Virginia, and Western Pennsylvania Will Be Benefited.

WHEELING, March 8.—Governor William A. MacCorkle of this state, on invitation of the Wheeling chamber of commerce, delivered an address last night to a large audience in the opera house on the Nicaragua canal project. The governor called to his aid large maps by which he demonstrated the great advantage to trade and commerce of the Ohio valley the Nicaragua canal would prove.

He dealt particularly on the effect of the building of the canal on the West Virginia and Pennsylvania coal industries, showing that coal from this section could be delivered on the Pacific coast cheaper than from Colorado. He spoke of the proposed Lake Erie and Ohio ship canal and a project which taken in conjunction with the Nicaragua scheme would make the entire region interested the wealthiest part of the continent. West Virginia, western Pennsylvania and Ohio want both schemes pushed through. The engines were frequently applauded.

LIGHTKEEPER KILLED.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., March 8.—Jerry Sanger, the old colored government lightkeeper at Bullets bayou, above here, was waylaid, clubbed to death and robbed of the money he had just received from the United States light tender, Joseph Henry.

Richard White, colored, was suspected of the crime, traced to Natchez, and located in a house at Pine and Madison streets. Policeman Stevens and Special Officer George O. Brady went to the house and attempted to arrest the negro, but as soon as he saw them he started to run. He was told to halt, but continued his flight, whereupon Brady fired three shots at him from a revolver. One shot took effect above the heart and he fell dead.

Poorly Paid For Outrage.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., March 8.—At a late hour last night five men, disguised as White Caps, entered the house of Farmer George I. Wagner, in Extra township. They heated a fire shovel red hot and applied it to Wagner's feet, at the same time demanding all the money he had in the house. The farmer told them it could be found in a bureau drawer. The thieves broke open the drawer, and secured $2.17. A hired man named Johnson was knocked senseless by a blow from the burglars. Mrs. Wagner and her little daughter were prostrated by fright. The White Caps left no clew behind them.

WILL NOT CONTEST THE WILL.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—The following statement was made yesterday by the two sons of the late Frederick Douglass: "The statement telegraphed to the papers of the country that there is or has been any antagonism between us and our father's wife, or his widow, at any time is without foundation. That there has been any consultation with any one at any place or time with regard to any will of Frederick Douglass, our father, we have no knowledge. We are absolutely unable to account for the statement made."

According to Maj. Handy, who is well posted in such things, it cost the tax payers a great deal of money to provide for the inner comfort of the United States Senators and their senatorial courtesy. During last year the Senators had 1,000 soda mint tablets and 1,000 licorice, 100 of soda tablets, 3,000 quinine pills, besides immense quantities of bromides, patent headache cures, Huyadi water, tincture and vaseline. All of these things were charged to the contingent fund, which amounts in all to $200,000. Coffee and chocolate counted up to $90 a month. Other interesting items in the account are twenty-six cases of Appollinaris in one month, together with eighteen boxes of lemons and 620 pounds of granulated sugar. No wonder it was necessary to buy ten dozen corkscrews, some of which cost $9 a dozen. Wonder if the Senators indulge in all of these extravagant luxuries at home?—Courier-Journal.

It would be far better for the country if the Senators indulged in "these extravagant luxuries" at home instead of at Washington City. This would give them more time while Congress is in session to look after needed legislation.

Louis Stix & Co., of Cincinnati, bought the Bainum farm near Dover, sold a few days ago by Master Commissioner Kehoe. It brought $49 an acre. About a year ago this land was sold by Mr. Kehoe and brought $54 an acre, but the heirs had the sale set aside.

Dr. Hays, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, has been repeatedly asked to publish a synopsis of a statement made Sunday morning. It will appear in to-morrow's issue of the BULLETIN. Mr. WATTERS, of the Watters party of artists, and the clerk of the St. Charles Hotel went out duck hunting Wednesday and had quite an exciting experience. Neither knew much about handling a skiff. Their boat was caught by the rapid current, and the crew of the ferry Launce responded to their cries for help and rescued them. They now take some one along to row when they go hunting.

Three prisoners convicted at the recent term of court were taken to the Frankfort penitentiary yesterday by Sheriff Jefferson. Among them was the notorious Charley Warner, and just before the train left it was discovered that Warner had stolen some clothes from a fellow-prisoner the night before. A fine fur cap was found hidden in his coat sleeve. Jailer Johnson had a lively chase to the depot to get the stuff, but he got there just before the train pulled out.

The Washington correspondent of the Courier-Journal says that if any Collector is thinking of appointing storekeepers and gaugers now is the time to appoint, for within a few days the rules and regulations to govern the appointment of these officials will be issued and thereafter applicants must take the Civil Service examination. Professor Proctor, President of the Civil Service Commission, said that early next week the rules and regulations to govern the examination for storekeepers and gaugers would be issued.

Hester Versus the Commonwealth.

In affirming the above case taken up from this county, the Court of Appeals, in an opinion by Judge Paynter, says:

The defendant was indicted for grand larceny, the specific charge being that she stole $35.00 from Frank Johnson. Her defense was that she found the money. The Court instructed the jury in substance that they must believe beyond a reasonable doubt that defendant did steal, take and carry away the money, etc. Defendant complained because the Court did not instruct the jury upon the idea that she found the money, but as the jury was compelled to believe under the instruction given that she stole the money and did not find it, she was not prejudiced thereby.

MAYSVILLE, THE PRETTIEST

And Most Prosperous City of Its Size in the State of Kentucky--The County Seat of Old Mason.

A City That is Progressive, Happy and Rich--Its Advantages.

A City of Many Go-Ahead, Hustling Business Men.

Some of Maysville's Most Prosperous Merchants and Bankers,

Carefully Compiled and Arranged For the Convenience of Our Citizens.

MAYSVILLE is admirably located on the banks of the beautiful Ohio River, on an elevated plateau, with a background of hills. It is distant from Cincinnati sixty-four miles. Maysville, with a population of eight thousand, is one of the leading manufacturing and commercial centers of the State, and merchants, business men and manufacturers seeking a location would do well to recognize the fact. It is situated in the very heart of the greatest and richest agricultural section in the State, where all cereals, vegetables and fruits indigenous to this latitude are grown in the greatest profusion; where domestic grasses reach their finest perfection and the raising of cattle and hogs and the growing of corn, wheat, tobacco and other crops is very largely engaged in.

Maysville has always been wealthy and prosperous. Mason County, of which Maysville is the seat of government, is a scope of country whose fertility of soil yields a wealth of agricultural products whose variety and value are unexcelled in any part of the State.

Maysville's growth has been gradual and permanent. As a place of business or residence Maysville presents attractions unexcelled by any other city of its size in the State. Property of all kinds is comparatively cheap. The inhabitants of both city and county are cultivated, courteous and hospitable, with a cordial welcome to strangers. To enterprising tradesmen and judicious capitalists this city offers fine opportunities. It has gas and electric light works, a system of water works that is unexcelled, first-class hotels, a line of electric street railway that reaches all parts of the city; almost every religious denomination is represented here, and our fine and costly church buildings are the pride of our citizens. In addition the city has splendid public and private schools.

As a trading point Maysville possesses marked and valuable advantages. First, merchants here handle enough goods to buy just as cheap as their competitors in any of the cities; then, instead of being forced to pay high rent, high taxes and heavy clerk hire, most of our merchants have but nominal expense in that way. Rents being cheap and taxes low it is not necessary that they sell goods at such enormous profits in order to foot all these bills and leave a margin. Besides some of our most enterprising merchants own buildings and take cash discounts on their bills. Another advantage that the people have by dealing with our home merchants is that by buying goods here they know exactly with whom they deal; but when they deal with foreign merchants their trading is mostly with irresponsible clerks who are not to be found again in case the goods fail to give satisfaction. Here they know exactly to whom to go, and Maysville merchants are ready and willing to make good any defects caused by mistakes.

The following is a reliable index pointing to Maysville business firms. It contains the names of enterprising and leading business men who have earned and are in full enjoyment of good and honorable reputations in the sphere of commerce, manufactures, etc.

The mention in each instance is brief, but sufficiently full to indicate clearly the nature and extent of each firm's or individual's business. It is not pretended that all the solid and prominent business firms in the city have places in this array. We could not reach every one, and a number we found were not ready to avail themselves of our space at this time. But while we qualify our assertion in regard to the names that appear on this page to-day, we still claim for them, one and all, that they are distinguished for enterprise, ability, probity and success. They are foremost merchants, manufacturers, etc. Taken together, they may fairly be regarded as leaders in the different departments of commercial and industrial activity.

To the general reader our index will not be without interest, affording, as it does, a map so to speak, of the business of Maysville, and showing the general tenor of business of the city during the past few years. It is of sufficient moment to every person having the interest of our city at heart to insure it a widely extended circulation, and for that purpose we have printed a sufficient edition, so that all may be supplied, and all can obtain copies for mailing purposes at this office.

We will also publish this list on a large card for free distribution, and to be placed in prominent places for constant reference.

THOMAS KIRK POAGE, Sr., born at Ripley in 1823, died this week at Cincinnati where he spent most of his life. He was one of the Queen City's esteemed citizens.

PROFESSOR ROBERT GRAHAM, who has long been connected with the Biblio College at Lexington as President, will retire soon, it is thought, and be succeeded by Rev. J. W. McGarvey.

MR. WILLIAM L. GARRISON, formerly of this city, has taken charge of Porter's Cafeteria, one of the finest restaurants in Pittsburgh. He has with him Mr. Thomas Oldham, also of this city.

NAPOLIAN BONAPART SHACKELFORD, the colored hog thief, was before 'Squire Bramel Thursday, and was committed to jail in default of $300 bail to answer the charge at the next term of the Circuit Court. It's a pretty plain case.

A PUBLIC exhibition of mind telepathy will be given by Prof. Ferris this afternoon. A person will be hid some place in the business portion of the city, and found by another person under hypnotic influence. This is a very difficult feat but will be attempted by the Professor.

THE annual meeting of the Kentucky League of American Wheelmen will be held in Maysville this year. The wheelmen of Maysville and vicinity, and those desirous of seeing Maysville give the visitors a warm welcome and good entertainment, are invited to meet in the parlor of the Central Hotel this evening, March 8th, at 7:30 to form committees to arrange for the meeting.

EIGHT-DAY walnut or oak clock, gong striker, strikes hour and half-hour, only $3.50; sold everywhere for $5.50 and $6. A special low price on Rogers & Bros. knives, forks and spoons. Prices reduced on everything in stock. These prices are guaranteed to be less than any prices now offered in Maysville. Call and examine goods and prices, no trouble to show you.

P. J. MURPHY.

DOVER NEWS: "James Key, of near Lewisburg, is an avowed candidate for Sheriff of Mason County subject to the action of the Democrats therein contained. While the time is a long way off for making the choice, Mr. Key is not averse to letting the people know he is right in it to a finish. He has many friends throughout the county who will work in his interest, first, last and all the time, and we predict he will make it very warm for the man who beats him."

Of Interest to Pensioners.

The officials of the Pension Bureau will soon take active measures to put into operation the recent legislation raising all pensioners receiving less than $6 a month to that rating. It is estimated that 4,000 cases will be affected by the legislation and will involve an increase of about $1,500,000. The Bureau has given notice that the hearing of individual cases will be unnecessary.

ONE thousand envelopes printed with business card for $1.50, cash.

J. T. KACKLEY & Co.

THE average fire loss at Lexington for the last ten years is placed at $36,308. The property-owners pay about $130,000 annually to the insurance companies.

THE Court of Appeals has affirmed the case of the city of Ludlow vs. the Board of Education of Ludlow, settling the validity of $25,000 in bonds issued for the purpose of erecting and enlarging public school buildings, voted in August, 1890. The case was contested on the ground of exceeding the constitutional limit. The court holds that the power to issue was complete before the Constitution was adopted.

The Courier-Journal in its sketch of the late Daniel Spalding, pays this tribute to him: "While Mr. Spalding was acting as Tobacco Inspector he was always promptly on hand, and although he was eighty years old when he held that position last, he was undaunted by the stifling heat in the warehouses in summer or the freezing weather in winter. He went straight along with his arduous labors, performing them to the satisfaction of all. There was never a man in the trade who was more respected or better known than Mr. Spalding, not only by the tobacco men, but by the citizens in general."

Cure for Headache.

As a remedy for all forms of headache Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It effects a permanent cure and the most dreaded habitual sick headaches yield to its influence. We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle, and give this remedy a fair trial. In cases of habitual constipation Electric Bitters cures by giving the needed tone to the bowels, and few cases long resist the use of this medicine. Try it once. Large bottles only fifty cents at J. Jas. Wood's drug store.

Mission Money Missing.

NEW YORK, March 8.—A partial examination of the books of the American Church Missionary society shows irregularities amounting to $20,000. Expert accountants are still at work examining the books of the secretary and treasurer, to see if there are any further shortages in the accounts. The Rev. Dr. Kingsolving of Brooklyn was appointed secretary of the society, in the place of Dr. Newbold.

Ex-Judge's Fatal Altercation.

NEW YORK, March 8.—Ex-Judge James McDonald of Chicago died suddenly here Wednesday night. He had just been arrested on a charge of causing a disturbance at a cafe under the Broadway theater. It is not known whether his death was due to natural causes or to blows received during a personal altercation in the restaurant.

Battle in Cuba.

KY WEST, March 8.—The report is received here of the engagement on Tuesday near Santa Clara, Cuba, between a band of insurgents and a battalion of Spanish soldiers. The government forces were defeated, with the loss of several men. A corporal was wounded. The Cuban loss is not stated.

KENTUCKY REPUBLICANS.

They Will Hold Their State Convention in Louisville on May 29th.

May 29th is the date and Louisville the place fixed upon for the coming Republican State convention.

The meeting of the State Committee at Louisville this week was a Bradley affair; his opponents were not in it. As a natural result, the Colonel got all he wanted.

The other candidates who wanted a later date are kicking, but they will have to take it out in that.

The representation in the convention will be one delegate for every hundred, or fraction over fifty, votes for Harrison in 1892.
